'Empowering Young Minds for Tomorrow'
Value for this half term "Respect" 26/09/25

Dear Families

It's been a productive few weeks, filled with sparkly starters, trips, and special days. We are working hard to build a culture of reading in the school, starting with the creation of cosy little 'Book Nooks' around the building to help children feel comfortable and inspired to read.

Next week is our Literature Festival, and we are excited to be reading and writing about "Incredible You" by Rhys Brisenden. You should already have received a letter outlining all the wonderful activities planned. Please don't forget to send in a photograph of yourself with your favourite book, this can be uploaded easily via Class Dojo."

Well-being

At Greenmeadow, well-being is at the heart of everything we do. If you ever need support or advice, please don't hesitate to reach out to Mrs Tucker, our dedicated Well-being Lead, or Mrs L. Robinson, our Family Engagement Officer as they are always here to help.

This half term, the whole school will be exploring the important value of respect, and we're looking forward to celebrating the children's learning and reflections in a special assembly ☺ Whole school attendance over the last two weeks was 95%

Bible story - Respect

In our assembly we learnt all about respect and the children loved it. Our nice visitors picked a person to come up and act. Freya was chosen and it looked like she had fun - she didn't stop smiling.

4 Purpose Day

This week we also had an assembly about our 4 Purposes. Healthy Bananaman, Ethical Ernest, Ambitious Amber and Enterprising Rimus. First we talked about the personalities of each one. Then Mr Westcott taught us all the 4 purpose dances. They were all different and very funny. Mr Westcott even dressed up as a banana! We learned about what the 4 purposes mean to us throughout the day.

Our New Reading "Cwtches"

There are now comfy areas with books and pillows in little spaces around the school. Lots of children can't wait to enjoy reading lovely stories in each one.

Sparkly Starters in Year 5 & 6

Year 5 reported that they made cookies with chocolate and bananas. The smell was amazing but they tasted even better.

The also made farms out of shoe boxes, and a collage out of chocolate wrappers.

In our topic Fast Fashion, we made a logo name and clothes brand. My group was called "Suits You" We sell suits, ties and stainless shoes.

As designers we drew the logo. It was a bit difficult but we made it in the end. Another group was called "Spray Away". Its logo is a circle with clothes in it. We had a great day ☺
