'Empowering Young Minds for Tomorrow'
Value for this half term "Respect" 12/09/25

Dear Families

A very warm welcome back to all our parents and pupils, and a special greeting to our new Reception Class, who are settling in beautifully.

As part of our School Development Plan, we are focusing on strengthening our reading culture this year. We would love for parents and governors to support us by becoming "reading role-models" and join in with our Literature Festival Week, which will take place at the end of September. More News to follow.

Well-being

At Greenmeadow, well-being is at the heart of everything we do. If you ever need support or advice, please don't hesitate to reach out to Mrs Tucker, our dedicated Well-being Lead, or Mrs L. Robinson, our Family Engagement Officer as they are always here to help.

This half term, the whole school will be exploring the important value of respect, and we're looking forward to celebrating the children's learning and reflections in a special assembly ☺ Whole school attendance over the last two weeks was 97%

Every fortnight, we'll be bringing you the latest updates in the Greenmeadow Gazette and sharing news and chatter on the School Dojo.

If there's anything you'd like us to cover, please do let us know — we'd love to hear your ideas.

Farm Visit - Year 2 and Wellbeing Warriors

The children all had such fun! They went on a tractor ride, saw a variety of animals and had the chance to cuddle creatures. Their favourite part of the visit was the outdoor adventure playground and barn play. A photographer followed them around for most of the day. Watch out for Torfaen News.

Colour Blind Awareness Day

Being colour blind is hard, you don't know which colour is which! Alex and Owen led an assembly informing us all about it and told us what teachers and friends can do to support them.

Hedlu Bach took their oaths

This week our new Heddlu Bach took their oaths and are committed to supporting the school. Their job will be to sort arguments on the yard and patrol to make sure everyone is following the rules.

Visitor form - don't forget to scan if you spend time in our lovely school.
