'Empowering Young Minds for Tomorrow'

Value for this half term Peace 14/11/25

Dear Families

The countdown to Christmas has truly begun! The children are buzzing with excitement as they learn their lines and songs for our upcoming Christmas productions, all while continuing their fantastic learning in class.

Thank you to everyone who attended our parent consultations. If you weren't able to make it, contact your child's class teacher to arrange a convenient time.

A huge thank you as well to the parents who joined our recent workshop on how we share pupil progress. Your enthusiasm and ideas were brilliant, and we look forward to using your feedback to help shape our future approaches.

Well-being

At Greenmeadow, well-being is at the heart of everything we do. If you ever need support or advice, please don't hesitate to reach out – we're always here to help. Contact Mrs Tucker, our dedicated Well-being Lead, or Mrs L. Robinson, our Family Engagement Officer.

Rights Ambassadors

The Rights Ambassadors made posters and showed them to the school. Each class will put up a poster, they have to remember as many of the children rights as they can, then later in the year each class will have a quiz about children's rights in Wales. For the younger ones it will be easier, and the older will be a bit harder. Good luck!

Heddlu Bach trip

Heddlu Bach went to Nant Celyn with the other cluster schools and talked about ASB (anti-social behaviour) and the consequences. They also wrote down what places scare them and thought of ideas for a poster to stop anti-social behaviour. After that, they discussed how we could be more safe and more inviting. There were three police officers that told us about true stories.

Remembrance Day

The whole school had two minutes of silence and an assembly ran by Mrs Smith. In Year 1 and 2 they painted pictures of poppies, they also used chalk pens to create poppies. Then they put paint on their hands and then put it on paper, they repeated this many times to create a poppy, handprint wreath. How wonderful!

New equipment - Playground

Zak likes the new skipping ropes because he jumps high like Ronaldo. Ari likes the bowling pins because he smashes them all down. Luca loves the hula hoops and Carter thinks the equipment is really good. Mollie thinks its great idea because it occupies the younger children. Finally, Finley praises the skipping ropes because he goes boxing and its part of his routine.

Anti bullying week

Amnabel and Charley told us about the task they completed on the laptops. They went on an anti-bullying website and completed a survey. Luca and Max created a poster/leaflet and Sophie and Laila talked about a video they had watched about bullying and its consequences. They also made wristbands stating "Power for Good". Reception children also really loved their Jigsaw lesson.
